Democratic Vice Presidential Candidate Says Party Will Stand as Unit to Seek Solution of Difficulties

ATTACKS G. O. P.

Says Opposing Faction Blame for
"Unrest in Country," Duplication of Work—Would Seek World Disarmament

(By the Associated Press)
Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 18.—Before a large and colorful gathering of long-time friends and supporters, national and sectional party leaders, Governor Charles W. Bryan tonight formally accepted the nomination for vice-president by the Democratic party and laid down in unmistakable terms the principles and issues upon which he will go before the people for victory at the polls.

Governor Bryan definitely opened his campaign with a promise to the progressive farmers and wage earners that the Democratic party would stand as a unit in seeking a solution of their difficulties. Senator Harrison of Mississippi, who delivered the nomination address, also acclaimed the Democratic organization as the only one to which the progressive elements could look for direction and leadership and asserted the presidential race would be between the two major parties.

He laid to the door of the Republican administration the responsibility for the "unrest through the country's duplication of government work, unnecessary boards and commissions, high cost of government, and excessive taxation."

The farmer, he continued, "needs the high tariff rates reduced so as to enable him to buy in competitive markets at home and remove the restrictions which have injuriously affected the foreign market in which he sells his surplus products."

Discussing war, Governor Bryan declared the Democratic party would endeavor to secure world disarmament by international agreements and seek also an international referendum on the subject.

War propaganda, mobilization of civilian and industrial resources, he declared as a "great economic waste, misleading, and unnecessarily inflammatory."

Says Urged Due to Inaction.

John W. Davis, the presidential nominee, and himself were termed "in harmony with the platform upon which we have been nominated." The Democratic party stands as a unit, without the intervention of faction, blue or red, he declared, "free from obligation to either individuals or interests that would prevent it from being used to restore confidence in government and economic justice to the nation."

His solution as "one from the heart of the great middle west" as the vice-presidential candidate Governor Bryan hailed as the Democratic party's recognition of "the importance of agriculture as one of the basic industries of the nation."

Political unrest and discontent throughout the country is a protest against the inaction of those in public office he asserted, coupling the statement with an accusation that "failure of the Republican administration to enforce the law against conspiracies in restraint of trade and illegal combinations of business which stifle competition has unnecessarily, unfairly, and dishonestly increased the cost of living and permitted the profiteer to ply his trade without let or hindrance."

Would Outlaw War.

Entrance of some states into the field of commerce, in which he and the state of Nebraska were among the leaders, he attributed to "the failure of the national Republican administration to enforce the law against cartels, trusts, and monopolies." Although, he continued, thousands of dollars a year were sent to the people in their coal, gasoline and oil bills, he did not favor any national or state competition when "government officials become corrupt and the federal government fails to function for the protection of the masses."

Governor Bryan in discussing what he termed "a few of the outstanding laws upon which the minds of the people of the great agricultural states" included "women's work and equality, child welfare, the Democratic party's interest in and support of labor, the needs of the agricultural, water power development, law enforcement, and the outlawing of war."

Rights of Others Paramount.

"As a business man who has been endeavoring to apply business principles to government and not as an experienced platform speaker, I will give all the support to one national candidate who may win."

The success of the nation, composed of diverse peoples and activities, requires that the diverse and interests shall be subject to the rights and needs of all, with individuals, groups, factions, and organizations subordinated to the extent that equal rights of others shall not be impaired, he declared.

The Democratic platform, Governor Bryan asserted, upholds the ideals of America, demands a return to honesty and equality in government, and outlines the legislative and administrative requirements for such restoration.

CIVIC LEAGUE MAY HAVE FIRPO OUSTED

Body Seeks Deportation Because of Alleged Perjury on Entering United States

New York, Aug. 18.—The Rev. William Sheafe Chase, president of the New York Civic league, which has been investigating the circumstances surrounding Louis Firpo's admission to the country, today swore to a warrant for the Argentine boxer's arrest on a charge of perjury, according to an announcement by the league's attorney, Bernard H. Sandler. Mr. Sandler said the warrant would be served tomorrow.

The request for a warrant was made after a four weeks' investigation which disclosed, Mr. Sandler said, that Firpo had failed to tell the truth in regard to Blanca Lourdes Picart, with whom he arrived last July on the steamship American Legion.

Mr. Sandler said an effort will be made to have Firpo deported before his scheduled bout with Harry Wills in Jersey City, September 11.

Canon Chase issued a statement at his attorney's office tonight in which he said:

"Firpo is to be arrested * * * for committing perjury to immigration officials. I regret that I, a private citizen, had to act in this matter, but the neglect of the United States commissioner at Ellis Island has made it imperative. He refused to investigate evidence which was available. He refused to allow my attorney, Bernard Sandler, to examine records of the case. He declared that the New York Civic league had no evidence to justify my demand for further investigation concerning the truthfulness of Firpo's statements when examined at Ellis Island. The bad administration of the law was evident to the eyes of the world as Commissioner Curran refused to act and Washington could do nothing to remedy the situation."

Immediately after he learned of the issuance of a warrant for his arrest, the Argentine boxer started for New York, according to word received here. He will appear in Commissioner Hitchcock's court at 10 o'clock tomorrow to answer to the charge, against him, lawyer Hyman Bushel, said tonight.

ERIE'S ACCEPTANCE OF OFFER DELAYED

Walter Referred to Executive Committee of Road for Action
—Some Dissatisfaction

New York, Aug. 18.—Failing to reach an agreement on the offer of the Van Sweringen interests of Cleveland to acquire the Erie railroad system, directors of the Erie railroad company today referred the matter to the executive committee for action. The committee is expected to vote later this week on recommending to stockholders the acceptance or rejection of the proposal.

Terms outlined by the Van Sweringens to the Erie board provided that holders of Erie first and second preferred shares would receive 50 percent of their holdings in preferred stock of the new company. Common stockholders would receive 50 percent of their holdings in new common shares. Although it was expected that acceptance of the offer would result in the Erie stockholders' uniting with the directors were understood to have expressed dissatisfaction with the proposed ratio of exchange for the preferred shares.

form ever promulgated," he declared. He paid tribute to his running mate, saying the spirit of unity rose and reason triumphed. In the nomination of "that able lawyer, that trained diplomat, that experienced statesman, that champion of the rights of humanity, that progressive Democrat, John W. Davis."

Honest Men Must Be Chosen.

"The buying of immunities, issuing of permits, hoarding of tariff schedules and the granting of government contracts to favored individuals, contributions must be uprooted and destroyed if this government is to endure," he asserted, adding that men must be selected for public positions because of honesty and ability, rather than social qualities or political strings.

Law must be dealt with humanely, asserted Governor Bryan.

All legislation for the benefit of the wage earners rests on the plain sentence of our platform's labor plan, which is not a commodity; it is human," he said. "The capitalists of industry have their place and should be protected in their rights, but those whom they employ and whose labor they direct have rights as sacred and essential as their employers to industrial welfare and our political program."

He termed the Republican administration's attitude toward labor unfair and said recent action regarding railway mail as "economy at the expense of labor."

The Democratic party's pledge of all its energies towards establishing the right of the citizen to the fruits of the country is a large majority of the American people and the Democratic party's platform is the only one that is not a commodity; it is human."

PRESIDENT KEEPS NEAR WOOD STOVE

Reads During Afternoon as Cool
Air Prevails at Farm of His Father in Vermont

Plymouth, Vt., Aug. 18.—Distinctly cool weather kept President Coolidge near the wood stove in the living room of his father's home here during much of the day as he continued his vacation program of resting.

Representative Treadway of Massachusetts presented Mr. Coolidge with a pair of rakes this morning, suggesting they might help in getting in the crops, and John Coolidge, his father, took him for an inspection of the farm but the President left his overalls and boots on untouched and spent the afternoon reading and visiting with his family. He and Mrs. Coolidge took a short walk this evening, after which Mrs. Coolidge watched a game of horseshoes which John, her son, and some of the townspeople were playing up the road from the house.

Mr. Coolidge has with him the report of the tariff commission on the sugar duty, but Mr. Sleep thinks it unlikely he will take action before returning to Washington next week on either this or the agricultural commission which the President said in his speech of acceptance he expected to appoint.

REFUGEES TELL OF ENFORCED LOANS BY HONDURAN OFFICERS

New Orleans, La., Aug. 18.—Refugees, both native and American, fleeing from Honduras, arriving here today brought stories of enforced government loans which they said were collected by the Tosta government and of the summary measures adopted by the dictator in his effort to force the revolt led by General Ferrera, formerly minister of war.

Ferrera now has an army of more than 4,000 men and is reported marching towards Tegucigalpa, the capital.

The governor of San Pedro has assessed a loan of $2,000 against the American interests in the state and is planning to force collection, the refugees said. They also declare Tosta intends the purchase of arms and ammunition in the United States and plan to smother them out in violation of existing treaties.

DEFENSE DAY CRITICISED AT CHAUTAUQUA MEETING

Chautauqua, Aug. 18.—Criticism of Defense day and an appeal for the repeal of the Japanese exclusion act marked the opening day's session of the Institution of International Relations from the Christian viewpoint.

Dr. William L. Axling, for 22 years a Baptist missionary in Japan, declared that action by congress rescinding its action of Japanese exclusion was the only thing that "would heal the gaping wound which America has inflicted in Japan's heart."

Dr. Hubert Hering, executive secretary of the commission on social service of the Congressional church in America, endorsed a protest against Defense day.

ANOTHER BANK ROBBERY

Madison, Ill., Aug. 18.—Seven bandits held up the Union Trust company here this afternoon. The robbers fled several shots wildly as they sped away.

BODY OF ITALIAN SOCIALIST FOUND

Positively Identified by Dentist and Relatives—Slav Held for Investigation

(By the Associated Press)
Rome, Aug. 18.—The body of Giacomo Matteotti, the Socialist deputy whose disappearance on June 10 stirred Italy, was definitely identified this afternoon not only by Signor Duca, a dentist, who easily recognized work he had done on the deputy's teeth a year and a half ago, but by a large number of relatives and acquaintances who were called by Judge Guidi, leader of the investigation into Matteotti's disappearance.

Police authorities, continuing their search for other evidence in the vicinity where the body was found, discovered a dilapidated copy of Corriere Italiano, dated June 7, parts of the newspaper Messaggero of the same date, and scraps of a newspaper, the Pravo Lido, which the officials believe to have been the property of a Slav, who is under arrest in connection with the Matteotti disappearance.

Police attach importance to the fact that a newspaper in the Slavic language, such as the Pravo Lido, is unknown in this section of the country.

SCHUBERTS SEEK TO HAVE PADLOCKED DOORS OPENED

New York, Aug. 18.—Lee and J. J. Schubert, theatrical producers, began proceedings in federal court today to have padlocks removed from the Moulin Rouge and Plantation, Broadway cabarets closed for one year in the government's recent drive to dry up the white light district. The Schuberts own the buildings housing the padlocked cabarets and set forth in their petition that they have new tenants who can give the court satisfactory assurances that no further violations of the prohibition law will occur on the premises.

The petitioners ask Federal Judge Knox, who signed the closing decrees, to show them the same consideration accorded Walter Salmon, owner of the property occupied by the Palais Royale, another cabaret padlocked at the same time as the Moulin Rouge and the Plantation and which will be permitted to reopen under new management in October.

GILPATRIC TRANSFERRED STATE FUNDS TO HIS BANK

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 18.—Accounts were taken over today by Captain Anson T. McCook, the new state treasurer, showing that the state deposit in the First National bank of Putnam was increased from $30,000 to $120,000 within the past two months. The amount of the state's deposit in the bank which was weakened by the declaration of G. L. Gilpatric, its cashier, and former state treasurer, previously had been set down as $10,000.

As state treasurer, Gilpatric made the additional deposit which put the total of the state funds in his banks at $23,000 over the legal limit. A deputy state treasurer, Thomas L. Judd, protested but was overruled.

BARGE CANAL PROBE ORDERED BY SMITH

Information Reaches Governor of Improper Operation of

The governor said he also would call Superintendent of Public Works Frederick S. Greene, Commissioner of Canals and Waterways Royal K. Fuller, State Engineer Dwight L. Ladd, and the five division engineers of the Public Works department.

In announcing the investigation the governor said the associations whose officials have been subpoenaed had sent communications in which it was stated that the barge canal was not being properly operated and maintained.

The party expected to come to Plymouth tomorrow and remain for only a short visit with Mr. Coolidge and family. Mr. Ford, Mr. Edison and Mr. Firestone have gone on cruises together for several years and this summer are making headquarters at the Wayside Inn, Sudbury, Mass., 200 miles from here. Their trip to Plymouth was arranged, it was said, after the President arrived here.

MRS. MORS' ESTATE LEFT TO HUSBAND

His Attorneys Declare Woman Was Robbed of Valuable Jewelry
After Death

Los Angeles, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Theresa W. Mors, who died here last Tuesday night with a bullet in her brain, and in connection with whose death Kid McCoy, ex-pugilist, is being held on suspicion of murder, left an estate of $125,000 and $50,000 in life insurance to her husband, Albert A. Mors, it was revealed here today by Mors' lawyers and the district attorney's office.

Another development was the announcement by Mors' attorneys that $5,000 worth of jewelry, composed of a black pearl, a brooch, and a diamond and sapphire studded watch had been stolen from Mrs. Mors. They demanded District Attorney Keyes to investigate the disappearance of the jewels.

The will of Mrs. Mors bequeathing everything to her "beloved husband," whom she recently divorced, was drawn in New York, August 4, 1921. One of the witnesses who signed it was Mrs. Ann Schapp, the woman who, with her husband and another man, was wounded by McCoy in a shooting on last Wednesday. Mrs. Schapp, say the investigators, had tried to reconcile Mors and his divorced wife.

The police abandoned search of a moving picture actor, or pugilist to whom McCoy was reported having confessed early Wednesday that he killed Mrs. Mors. This man, named in an anonymous call to police headquarters by a woman's voice as Dick Summers, or Dick Sommers, apparently is a myth, say the police.

PLANES OF FLYERS INJURED AT START

Worst Mishap of Trip Happens as Aviators Seek to Take Off
—Await Spares

(By the Associated Press.)
Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 18.—The worst mishap of the trip happened as the flyers attempted this morning to take off on the long north Atlantic hop to Fredericksburg, near Cape Farewell, east Greenland, and in doing so both of the planes were injured in perhaps the most serious mishap so far of the globe encircling trip.

One of the planes broke its propeller bar and the second plane broke its propeller.

It is anticipated that the mishap will delay the flyers some days, as the cruiser Richmond, which is bringing all the spare parts for the planes, will not arrive here until Wednesday morning. It is hoped the repairs may be completed the same day.

The accidents today were attributed to the fact that the planes were carrying the heaviest loads of petrol that have been attempted since the start of the flight. Although the sea was dead calm, the machines were unable to leave the water.

THREE KILLED AS FIVE MEN EXCHANGE SHOTS; TWO HELD

Texarkana, Ark., Aug. 18.—Walter Armstrong, 50; Charles Dixon, 26; and Jim Dixon, 23, were shot to death in a five-cornered gun battle in the main street of Fouke, near here, today, according to a dispatch to the Texarkanan. Stuart and William Armstrong were arrested. The shooting is alleged to have originated at a party at Ward's camp near Fouke Saturday night. CAVERLY QUILTS SESSION AMID MUCH APPLAUSE

Hearing to Determine Punishment of Leopold and Loeb Turns
From Serious to Comic
Before Adjournment

ONE MORE WITNESS

Crowe Expects to End Case Unless Unexpected Events Turn Up
—Judge May Delay Decision Some Days

(By the Associated Press.)
Chicago, Aug. 18.—The judicial hearing by which it is to be determined the fate of Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard A. Loeb, confessed murderers of Robert Franks, went from the serious to the comic today and wound up in a tale of laughter.

Throughout the morning session, Clarence S. Barrow, chief of defense counsel, fenced adroitly with Dr. H. Douglas Singer, alibiist for the state, as he tried to obtain from the expert admissions that "schizophrenia" or "split" personalities were necessarily subjects of mental disease.

This afternoon Dr. William O. Krohn, last witness for the state and probably for the hearing, recited at length the observations and reasons for declaring the defendants mentally sound and they got into a hammer and tongs exchange with Benjamin Bachrach, defense counsel, who began his cross-examination of the state's "ace."

Case May Be Near End.

Judge Caverly glanced at the clock, which was two minutes beyond the adjournment hour, straightened up in his chair, and with a twinkle in his eyes, announced unexpectedly:

"We will adjourn now until 10:20 o'clock tomorrow."

The yell of merriment that followed was by far the greatest of the day and the only one that brought no rebuke from the hall's gavel.

The day's developments served to bring the case appreciably closer to its end. Mr. Barrow said tonight that the defense probably would conclude its cross examination of Dr. Krohn tomorrow and would offer no further testimony. Robert E. Crowe, state attorney, announced that unless there were unexpected overnight developments, Dr. Krohn would be his last witness. If this program is carried out, closing arguments may be started at the Wednesday session.

Judge Caverly has given no indication as to when he would render his judgment. A fortnight ago he said he would shut himself in his study for several days to go over the entire records of the five weeks of the hearing. Guesses about the court ranged from five to ten days as the time a court would take to consider the facts and theories of the state and defense.

MYSTERIOUS FLOW OF MUD AND ROCKS ON MT. SHASTA

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 18.—A veritable river of mud, boulders and ashes, extending in width from a few hundred yards to half a mile and in some places from 15 to 20 feet deep, is flowing from the mouth of Mud Creek canyon, eight miles above McCool, Siskiyou county, on the slope of Mount Shasta, into the McCloud river, says a dispatch to the Sacramento Bee today.

Boulders, some of them many tons in weight, are being carried down the river in the thick stream, the like of which has never been seen before in the McCloud section and whose origin is a mystery.

ALLEGED TRAIN DERAILERS ARRAIGNED AS DELINQUENTS

Stoughton Mass., Aug. 18.—Accused of derailing a New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad passenger train here August 4, Alpha Trinkins and Joseph Abell, both boys, were arraigned in court today on charges of delinquency.

Police said that the boys told them they had placed railroad spikes on the rails shortly before the express hurled the train, the engine plunging through the stone wall of the Stoughton station and turning over in the waiting room. Only slight injuries to railroad men resulted from the derailment.

NEW BANK CERTAIN.

Putnam, Conn., Aug. 18.—Putnam, using wartime and Liberty loan methods, has gone over the top in its campaign to secure funds and organize a new National bank to replace the wrecked First National bank, closed after shortages had been discovered by National bank examiners and after its cashier, former State Treasurer G. Harold Gilpatric, had attempted to commit suicide.

The citizens committee of 12 reported tonight that the $150,000 to establish the new institution had been over-subscribed and the necessary papers for filing a formal application for a charter had been received from Washington.

WILL TEST PARTS OF DEAR

New York, Aug. 18.—Orth Parlor John J. Sullivan of Boston, chairman for the American athletic corps in France during the World war, will leave Hitchcock field at 3:30 a. m. in a Delahand plane for San Francisco.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

Albion's Aged Aid.

"Follow La'oligie," is about due at convention time they sang. "State of the Union" and "Keep the Faith." — (Syracuse Post-Standard.)

Most Lawless on Earth.

It is a fearful indictment to say that the United States is the most lawless country among the civilized nations of the earth, but Judge Tamm of New York is right, in the sense of criminal law, as distinguished from mere moral obliquity. — (Wicks-Torre Record.)

Soviet Treaty Terms.

Conceding the vagueness attaching to provisions in treaties, and negotiating between Russia, as a Communist power, and Great Britain, on the one hand, and the United States, on the other, is that adjudication is left to the future. Thus one of the most important phases dealt with in the present treaty still holds possibilities of being a stumbling block. — (Indianapolis News.)

Pershing's Great Service.

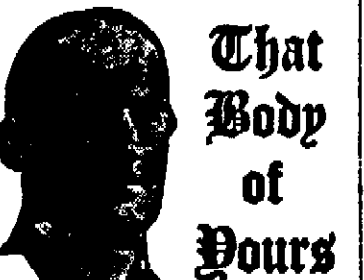

It is no disparagement of Major General John L. Pershing, who will be remembered to the last, of chief staff, to say that Pershing's great service as commander of the United States Army in the World War was not in the field, but in the staff, where he was the most efficient and capable of any man in the army. — (Brooklyn Daily Eagle.)

Sarah Bernhardt's Grave.

It is a strange story that two American women bring back from Paris to the effect that the grave of the Divine Sarah in Pere Lachaise cemetery is overrun with weeds and other things. One of these women, Mrs. David Delano, is reported to have left money with the cemetery authorities to have the grave cleared and taken care of. — (Philadelphia Record.)

For This We Have Marines.

And no admirals once more may have to tell it to the marines. Another revolution has broken out there in which two Americans are reported to have been killed, rival politicians are attacking themselves with or against the incumbent government, and our marines, who are never far distant from trouble in Central America, are said to be hastening to the Nicaraguan border, where the trouble is thickest. — (Buffalo News.)

That Body of Yours

WHOLE WHEAT BREAD.

In nearly every health magazine you pick up, you will see articles extolling the virtues of whole wheat bread.

A frequently mentioned reason is because I believe in it.

However, there is just this to remember always, and that is that after all it is only bread, only wheat, and wheat isn't a complete food by any means.

It is a good way to eat bread, of course, because you get the whole of wheat, and that means more nourishment, more iron, more mineral salts, and more of the waste or cellular matter, which, by gently irritating the intestine, stimulates it into action, and thus prevents to some extent that bugbear constipation.

But the trouble with some folks is that they think that by eating whole wheat bread in large quantities, they are getting the all-around nourishment required. In other words, they fill up on the whole wheat bread, drink some water, eat a little fruit, and wonder why they don't feel strong and vigorous.

Now, my point is that you should eat whole wheat bread all right, but you should eat all the other foods also.

Milk is a good food for growing youngsters, and a good food for a temporary measure in some late infirmities, but it cannot be considered a complete food for adults.

Yet you see a diet of whole wheat bread and milk advised as a complete diet for everybody.

Milk and whole wheat bread contain mineral salts, some starches to maintain heat, and some proteins to repair waste, but they do not contain enough of them.

The other food stuffs which must be added to them are the fruits and the vegetables.

You were meant to eat foods that required the use of your teeth and gums; foods that require a little chewing to make them easy to swallow.

Thus apples, celery, figs, lettuce, and spinach are valuable because of the mineral salts they contain, and the effort required to chew them.

If, as I've said before, you work outdoors, or engage in athletic games, then to the whole wheat bread add a little of the other foods. If you are a sedentary person, then add a little of the other foods. If you are a sedentary person, then add a little of the other foods.

Whole wheat bread is a splendid food for the reason given above, but you must eat it with the other foods. You must eat it with the other foods.

His Colony in Need of Wives

The "Last of the Samaritans," of Biblical days, a colony living near Jerusalem, is in danger of dying out. Unless the colony, now but 125 strong, permits marriages outside its own members, which has been forbidden for 2000 years, it will soon become extinct. Cast aside at the time of the building of the second Temple, as not being Jews, these Samaritans lived aloof. They practice Judaism in a simple fashion and their dress is that of the Arabs. The picture is of a high priest. The characters are a mixture of Arabic and Hebrew.

THE GUIDE POST—BY Henry and Tertius VanDyke

SELF-COMPLACENCY

They themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. — II Corinthians 10:12.

The only really unbearable man in the world is not the egotist.

A good honest egotist is infinitely superior to a snarling Heep.

The unbearable man is the self-complacent man.

The egotist talks some about what he has done, but still mopes about what he is going to do.

Content with what he is, I can see his earthly person, his and his sleek, sleekly sleek contentment.

He has no fear, and he gives the fearful impression that he believes that all progress ends in him.

Inevitably your spirit revolts against the terrible thought, and you begin to run not in a steadily advancing and conquering world.

It is not a world of the future, but a world of the present, where it represents high personal concentration of the matter in hand.

But self-complacency is the inveterate refuge of small men, the petty attempt to start a reputation by neglecting the claims of good judgment.

If you want to be thoroughly derided, if you want to cut the nerve of all achievement, try being satisfied with yourself.

And if you are a self-complacent egotist, you will find that you are a self-complacent egotist, and you will find that you are a self-complacent egotist.

Purity ICE CREAM

That Creamy Taste

Many people have the mistaken idea that commercial ice cream contains all sorts of adulterants and substitutes. This may be true of some, but not of PURITY Ice Cream, which has come to be accepted as a standard of quality wherever it is sold.

There is a state regulation which requires a certain percentage of butterfat (cream). The manufacturers of PURITY not only meet this requirement, but actually use 50% more cream than is asked by the law. This insures a smooth, healthful, delicious product, free from any harmful agency and just chock-full of every element necessary to ruddy health and growth.

Three thousand dealers recommend and sell PURITY. This vast distribution is eloquent of its popularity with the buying public and attests its sterling merit.

LAND IN FROG POND

Party of Seven in Fortunate Accident at Chimney Sunday.

Maryland, Aug. 18. — Sunday afternoon a party of seven people in an Oldsmobile touring car skidded on the muddy Chimney road near the junction with the Hoyt road and the machine turned turtle and landed bottom side up in the frog pond near the corner. Miss Flora Clark, a member of the party, was pinned underneath the car, and while she suffered somewhat from shock and other injuries, there is thought to be nothing serious in her condition. She was the only one injured and the escape of the other members is thought miraculous.

The party was driving toward the state road and as they drove out of the Hoyt road onto the Chimney road the car, which was skidding at no great rate of speed, assumed a queer position, and the car rolled over on its side, landing in the frog pond near the corner. The car was damaged and the damage to the car was confined largely to a broken windshield and to the top.

J. C. STAPLETON FOUND DEAD

Wife Mrs. Stapleton, With Remains to Oneonta and Worcester, Mass. Buried in Oneonta, N. Y. — Special Wednesday.

The sudden death of Joseph C. Stapleton, a well known resident of this city, and a native of Worcester, was discovered Sunday evening at about 5 o'clock by a companion with whom he had been motoring during the day. It is believed that death was due to heart trouble, with which Mr. Stapleton had suffered considerably following service in the World war, during which he was severely gassed and wounded.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the family home at Worcester, and at 9:30 o'clock from St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church of that village, with Rev. Father Kelly officiating. Burial will be made in St. Joseph's cemetery at Worcester.

Surviving Mr. Stapleton are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Stapleton of Worcester; three sisters, Mrs. T. McCabe of Worcester, Miss Anna Stapleton, a bookkeeper with the Ingersoll Trust company of this city, and Miss Helen Stapleton, a teacher in the public schools of Rochester; and two brothers, William Stapleton, an employee of the Wilbur National bank of this city, and Edward Stapleton, a D. & H. brashman of Cliff street, this city; besides numerous cousins in Oneonta and surrounding territory.

The sincere sympathy of a host of friends will be extended to the family in its bereavement.

Mr. Stapleton was born at Sidney, December 25, 1888, the son of Martin and Nora Crowe Stapleton. For 23 years he had made his home in Oneonta, first in the employ of the D. & H. shops and later with the New York State Gas & Electric corporation. He was a member of St. Mary's church and of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the American Legion.

His war record was an exceptional one and many of his comrades yesterday spoke in highest terms of his valiant service. He was a member of Company G, of the National Guard, and served during the war with the 107th Infantry. He was injured in action October 19, 1918, at the battle of La Vieille, and he had often suffered from the gas and other injuries which he received at that time.

Mr. Stapleton visited, in company with Grover Francis of this city, Dorio and Edward, near Cobleskill, on Sunday afternoon, and later in the evening the party, riding in a Ford touring car, started from Seward toward South Valley. However, all were considerably tired and it is thought that they stopped about two miles south of Seward to take a little rest before making the trip to Oneonta.

When Mr. Parris awoke he tried to arouse Mr. Stapleton, but he was unable to do so and a doctor was called. It is understood that this doctor found him dead upon his arrival and thought he had passed away about an hour before his arrival.

FOR NATIONAL COMMANDER

Republican Representative, United States House of Representatives, United States of America, W. Herrick, of Oneonta, as Commander-in-Chief of National Command.

Chauncey W. Herrick, a resident of Oneonta and well known here though now located in Washington, D. C., where he holds a responsible position in charge of the field force of the Tax division, Internal Revenue department of the United States, is announced as a candidate for the position of commander-in-chief of the National Order of United Spanish War Veterans. It is a position of great importance, which Mr. Herrick, on account of long previous experience is eminently qualified to fill, and to which his many friends in this city will be pleased to have him succeed. Of Mr. Herrick, who went out at the opening of the Spanish-American war with Company G of Oneonta, the National Tribune of August 14, has this to say, the article being accompanied by a life-size column picture of the Oneonta candidate who has the unanimous endorsement of the New York department:

"Chauncey W. Herrick, of Oneonta, N. Y., served during the war with Spain as a corporal of Co. G, 1st N. Y. Vol. Inf. The regiment was mobilized at Camp Black, Long Island, and was sent from there to Presidio, Cal., destined for duty in the Philippine Islands, but the orders were later changed, and it was sent to Honolulu, Hawaii, doing duty there until December, 1919, when orders were received to return to New York, where the regiment was mustered out of service in February, 1919.

"Comrade Herrick joined Col. Walter Scott Camp, No. 42, Department of New York, U. S. W. V., of Oneonta, N. Y., as a charter member when the camp was organized in 1905 and became its commander in 1909. He always took an active interest in department and national affairs, being elected to the Department Council of Administration in 1910, junior vice-department commander in 1911, and commander unanimously in 1912. In the latter year, also, Comrade Herrick was conducted through the jungles which lead to the fair of 'Snails'.

"He attended his first national encampment in 1911, when it was held in Oklahoma City, Okla., and has been among those present at each annual gathering since that date with but two exceptions. He served on the National Executive committee by appointment of Commander-in-Chief Carlstrom in 1921, on the National Legislative committee by appointment of Commander-in-Chief Entin in 1922, and was appointed national chief of staff by Commander-in-Chief Alcorn, which position he now holds.

Statement by Mr. Herrick.

"In a statement regarding his policies if elected to fill the position of commander-in-chief, Comrade Herrick said:

"I realize that any executive must be more or less guided by the exigencies of situations as they arise, and that a line of march may be outlined. I believe that particular stress should be put upon the matter of recruiting, to the end that we may have united effort for the things we believe in. I particularly believe that efforts should be made to attach to our ranks as many as possible of the eligible veterans living in small towns and the country districts.

"In national legislation I believe the big thing is to secure the increased rates of pension provided in the Bursum Pension bill, as that would immediately benefit more than 25,000 of our comrades of the Spanish war period who are either suffering from disability or the ravages of age. The passage of this law would likewise be an insurance to those who are not now eligible to its benefits and would be a protection in case misfortune overtakes us.

"The amended Bursum bill likewise provides for an increase of pension to Spanish war widows, bringing them to a parity with all other war widows, something that there can be no question is earnestly desired by our membership.

"The bureau hospitals, secured during the present administration, is one of the finest things that has come to us, but it must be remembered that on two previous occasions adverse ratings by the comptroller general have nullified important provisions of this law and this must be closely watched in order that every needy comrade may receive all the benefits to which he is entitled.

"To my mind, also, there is another big item of benefit to our comrades which should have the utmost aid and hearty co-operation of National Headquarters—states, through the aid of our comrades, have passed many laws benefitting veterans residing within the state, others have been backward in this respect. I should have a compilation made of such state laws as grant tax exemption, provide sick relief, make provision for burial, provide places of meetings, make appropriations for holding services on patriotic occasions, etc., and undertake to aid the backward states in securing the passage of these laws, modified, of course, to meet local conditions.

"I believe that we should maintain close relations with other veterans organizations in order to have co-operation in securing the recognition for service to the country to which all veterans are entitled.

"I realize that the auxiliaries have been a factor in the upbuilding of many camps, as well as a material aid in securing beneficial legislation, and I will welcome their continued co-operation and support.

"An active campaign throughout a year along the lines I have suggested would aid greatly in increasing our membership. I am all too sure have more interest in doing something definite than which which they can lend their energies."

For Sale—Dwelling and I Have Lived. Located a short distance from the city, just a step off the main road; six-room dwelling and one acre of good, level land. Price, $3,000; cash, $1,000. Campbell Bros. advt 11

MAHADY TURNS TODAY

Former Oneonta Minor League Pitcher for Harrisburg Today Against Oneonta—Last Season Chose South September 1.

Jim Mahady, who pitched for Oneonta in the West Byrnes days of yesteryear, will start on the mound for Harrisburg today. Manager Killinger announced last evening. We say start, for the Giants are anxious to win the game and the series and will make strenuous efforts to erase Mahady from the scene. Mahady was a favorite in the down-river village and the definite announcement that he will pitch today should secure a large attendance of Oneonta fans.

Victor will undoubtedly be Manager Thomas' mound choice. The big boy is fit and should make the going extremely hard for the Senators. The Giants are particularly desirous of winning this afternoon's struggle as it would make two series in a row. Even if the Senators win they can only tie the series but victory is what the Giants want and what they are going to try hard to get. The fact that this will be the last home game the Giants play until September 1 should assure a good crowd this afternoon. The boys are playing fine baseball and the fans have been supporting them loyally. That this loyal support will continue is the belief and the hope of all connected with the baseball association.

The Giants are always trying and the fans like that spirit. The first game yesterday, despite the appearance of the score, was no walkaway for Harrisburg and the Giants showed their fight in the second contest by winning, although hitting safely but three times. Two out of three from Harrisburg looks pretty good and three out of four will look still better.

AGAINST SUNDAY BASEBALL

Oneonta Grange Passes Condemnatory Resolution Last Evening.

A resolution condemning Sunday baseball was passed at the regular meeting last evening of Oneonta Grange, and a committee, consisting of Robert Fesser, A. F. Bruva and Elbert Niles, was appointed to co-operate with whatever other committees might be working against the proposition.

The third and fourth degrees were worked on a class of candidates, the secret work being in charge of Deputy George H. Ritter of Edmeston. Mr. Ritter also gave a very interesting address, touching upon the general work of the grange, using co-operative marketing and strongly advocating an open public market in the city of Oneonta.

An interesting musical program followed and light refreshments were served.

Valuable Farm Sold.

Frank Potter of West Oneonta has sold his farm and personal property, located between West Oneonta and the Country Club, containing a dairy of purebred Holstein cows, to George E. Kilquist, of Farmingdale, Long Island. This sale was made through the Square Deal Farm agency, 113 Main street, Oneonta.

What Are Your Dreams, Mother, FOR YOUR BOY?

WE WANT YOUR HELP

As president of the Oneonta Rotary club, every member of which club feels the deepest interest in the work which is being done at this time to interest our boys and girls in the advantages of staying in school, may I not make an appeal to all our citizens for their assistance and co-operation.

Outside of our membership there are many men who will read these appeals who are now fully alive to the responsibility they owe to their children in seeing that they get all the advantages that are possible in the way of an education. May we not have your assistance in our work? Won't you discuss with your neighbor or friend who has not fully decided to keep his children in school the things that lead you to keep your children in school?

Won't you join us in this work of seeing that our boys and girls and for our city and our country? Your neighbors and friends will appreciate your interest in their children and value your opinions and certainly some of them will follow your advice. You will be amply rewarded in the future when some of the boys you have helped to keep in school are successful, happy men who will always remember that it was through your interest and help they remained in school and obtained the education that made their success possible. I believe you will join us in this work, for I am sure you share with us the ideals of our club. "Service above self; No profits more who serve best."

Signed, Frank M. Gurney.

BEYOND QUESTION YOU WANT YOUR BOY TO SUCCEED IN A BIG WAY

To achieve the full success of which he is capable he needs a strong, well developed body and a mind well trained to think quickly and correctly.

The best education that school and college afford is none too good for your boy.

Perhaps you have dreamed of a place of honor and distinction for him. It is natural that a mother should.

In a far-reaching investigation by the United States government into the question of

THE VALUE OF AN EDUCATION

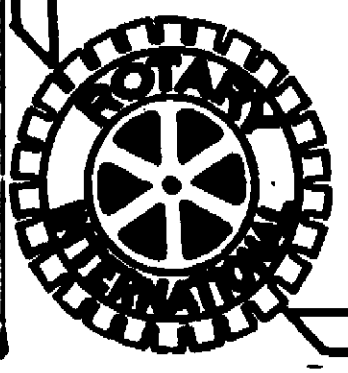

it was found that 150,000 persons—
Without a grammar school education only one wins distinction!
With a grammar school education 4 become distinguished!
With a high school education 87 reach distinction!
With a college education 800 become distinguished!

Whether it is distinction you desire for him or business success your boy needs a thorough education. With the spur and inspiration which you can give him he can have one.

Are You Giving Him That Spur?

KEEP YOUR BOY IN SCHOOL

FARM BUREAU LEADERS

Regional Directors for Oneonta and Nearby Counties Meet at Herkimer.

Farm bureau leaders of Herkimer, Oneida, Otsego, Fulton and Montgomery counties will meet at Herkimer on August 29 for a regional directors' meeting of the New York State Farm Bureau federation, called by President Knox Lee.

A. J. Williams of West Winfield, Herkimer county; Thomas Roberts of Clinton, Oneida county; O. A. Chamberlain of Richfield Springs, Otsego county; Bert V. Kasson of Gloversville, Fulton county; and Gilbert Quackenbush of Fort Hunter, Montgomery county, will attend as regional directors and voting members of the conference. The board of directors and county agents of these counties farm bureaus will also be in attendance.

President Lee will act as chairman of the meeting. E. V. Underwood, secretary of the state federation, and Jay Coryell, state leader of county agents, will report on general policies and plans. It is expected that Carl Ladd, newly appointed director of extension at the New York State College of Agriculture, may also be present.

Local officers in discussing the conference stated that it would probably be devoted to plans for a revival of interest in the farm bureau and its possibilities of help through joint action by the farmers in certain communities where the opportunities offered by the association through education, organization and legislation had been somewhat neglected.

They point out that the state farm bureau federation in its transportation department alone offers a service which in many counties has proved a means of saving large sums of money to farm bureau members through freight rate adjustments and similar matters.

President Lee has called similar state. His purpose, it is stated, is to awaken keener individual interest in the future of farm organization. The state and the national farm bureau federations, he says, have the same foundation as the county farm bureaus and only as much strength as these combined groups afford. The reason for the existence of farm associations, he declares, is to render needed service to the individual farmer. They need the support of the individual farmer to make this service possible.
